LOCAL MATTERS.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 7:14 and sets at 5:09. High water at 5:01 p. m. and 5:25 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

RECEPTION.

One of the most brilliant social events of the year was the reception given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. William B. Smoot at her home on Prince street. The decorations of the house were exceptionally beautiful—palms, ferns, and poinsettias adorned the drawing rooms, while in the dining room clusters of media roses and red shaded lights carried out a gorgeous color scheme. In the receiving line with Mrs. Smoot were Mrs. Lawrence Perry, of Braddock and Mrs. James Oator and Mrs. Frank Oator, of Baltimore. Assisting also in the drawing rooms were Mrs. W. Albert Smoot, Jr., Mrs. Albert Bryan, Mrs. S. L. Monroe, Mrs. George Auderton, Mrs. Stewart Jamison, Mrs. O. E. Nicol, Mrs. John Foster, Miss Carrie Stribling, Mrs. W. J. Bothe Jr., Mrs. George French, Mrs. George Masbach, Mrs. Elward Fawcett, Miss Oara Smoot, Miss Virginia Oore, Mrs. R. A. Parker, Miss Eva Dent and Miss Sibyl Smoot. Punch was served in the conservatory by Mrs. Oarene Leadbeater and Miss Lula Smoot, and assisting in the dining room were Mrs. Louis Bailey, Mrs. George Uhler, Mrs. Arthur Snowden and Mrs. Louis Scott.

FIGHT ON MR. CARLIN.

An article taken from the Richmond Times-Dispatch was published in yesterday's Gazette concerning a fight which it is said will be made against Mr. Carlin's return to Congress. A dispatch from Richmond says: "Lindsay Gordon, Henry Fairfax, John H. Ryan, former speaker of the House, and other political leaders from the Eighth congressional district, all antagonistic to the Carlin organization, held a conference yesterday to decide whether or not a candidate should be placed in the field against C. O. Carlin in the congressional race in the Eighth district. The outcome of the race cannot be definitely ascertained at present, but it is decided to run a candidate against Representative Carlin who will be either Lindsay Gordon, Henry Fairfax or Joseph E. Willard."

NEW COMET.

The new comet, it is said, can now be seen with the naked eye. As soon as the comet had dipped below the horizon on Saturday evening, it was announced that the comet was found with the naked eye. The comet, say those who saw it, presented a bright, slightly oval disc and well defined coma; a short tail formed of two diverging streamers, was also very bright. The position at 5:30 was right ascension 20 hours and 35 minutes and south declination 16°. The comet is said to be moving east 3° and north more than 4° a day. It will be seen half an hour after sunset today and for a long time each successive evening as it gets farther east of the sun. It is believed that the comet may eclipse in interest that of Dr. Bailey's.

ALEXANDRIA LIGHT INFANTRY

Sergeant A. I. Matchett, Second U. S. Infantry, a non-commissioned officer of the regular army, reported today for duty with Company G, First Regiment Infantry, Virginia Volunteers, which is the Alexandria Light Infantry. He is one of the two sergeants who have been detailed by the War Department for duty with the militia of this state, known as the Virginia Volunteers. Beginning with tonight there will be a drill or other military instruction every night during Sergeant Matchett's stay. In addition to the usual drills he will instruct the company in calisthenic and bayonet exercises, individual cooking in the field, first aid to wounded, visual signaling and other military matters.

ALEXANDRIA COUNCIL, J. O. A.

A well-attended and interesting meeting of Alexandria Council, Junior Order of Americans, was held last night. Seven candidates were initiated, and one former member was reinstated. By a small increase in assessment, the council is now enabled to pay $500 funeral benefits instead of $250 as formerly.

GERMAN CLUB.

The Alexandria German Club will give their fourth dance of the season at McBurney's Hall tonight; quite a number of out-of-town guests are expected. The management will start the German promptly at 9 o'clock. For some unknown reason the previous ones of the season have not started before 10 o'clock, thus interfering greatly with the rearrangement.

OPERA HOUSE.

The Opera House was packed to its capacity last evening when the Guy Johnson Company presented "The Little Orphan," which was accepted as one of the best offerings of the season. A new mill in full operation is depicted in a realistic manner in the third act; and no pains have been spared in making the production complete in every detail. The play will run until Saturday night.

COLORED MAN OUT.

A difficulty occurred between Rhoda Newman, colored, and another darkey named Cole on the corner of Wolfe and Columbus streets, last night, during which Newman was seriously cut on the left side of the face by Cole. The injured man was taken to the Alexandria Hospital where Dr. Williams rendered necessary surgical aid. Cole escaped.

RED MEN.

The regular meeting last night of Oseola Tribe of Red Men was rendered more interesting by an official visitation and a smoker which was given at the close. Otto Fisher, Great Sachem of the District of Columbia, was present, as was also W. S. Nickles, Great Sachem of the State of Virginia, and a delegation from Seminole Tribe, of this city. Speeches were made during the evening.

The Linder Shoe for Ladies fine wear has no equal. John A. Marshall & Co., 422 King street.

FUNERAL.

The funeral of the late George W. Myers took place this afternoon from the residence, on King street, near Patrick, and was attended by many friends and acquaintances of the deceased. Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons, of which the deceased was a member, attended the funeral in a body, and representatives of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and Knights of Honor were also present. The services were conducted by Rev. C. D. Baile.

The following were the active pallbearers: Messrs. Herbert Taylor, W. T. Wilkins, R. F. Beckham, M. L. Dinwiddie, T. A. Fisher and Carroll Pierce. The honorary pallbearers were Messrs. J. M. Duncan, J. E. Alexander, W. G. LeBew, S. H. Lunt, H. K. Field, G. V. Peyton, N. C. Thompson, W. B. Smithers, T. C. Smith, C. E. Smith, R. Keith, Geo. W. Keys, M. M. Albright and Dr. Rixey. A delegation from Old Dominion Commandery, Knights Templar, acted as an escort.

A SOU-EASTER.

The mild weather of yesterday was followed by cloudy conditions about dark, and during the night the wind changed to the southeast, bringing rain at an early hour this morning. As the day advanced the wind gathered force, and heavy and at times alarming flows struck the city. The river, lashed by the gale, surged and beat against wharves of the city and filled the docks with floating ice. Apart from the occasional passing up or down of a steamer or a tugboat navigation was brought to a standstill. Persons compelled to move about the streets experienced considerable difficulty, as the rain came in sheets and the heavy flows rendered it almost impossible to carry umbrellas; hence they were compelled to battle against the elements in the rain to a rainy day. The Weather Bureau predicts colder and clearing conditions tonight.

The wind moderated in the afternoon, after which a fog gathered on the river.

COLORED MASS MEETING.

A mass meeting of colored people will be held in Roberts Chapel, on South Washington street, tonight at eight o'clock for the purpose of discussing the following questions: "How shall we improve the moral and industrial conditions of our young men and women?" "How may we best co-operate with our white neighbors in fighting the high prices on necessities of life?" "What, if any, part shall we take in the sixtieth anniversary of the emancipation of slaves in 1913?"

The following compose the committee: Rev. S. M. Johnson, Zion Baptist Church; Rev. G. W. Jenkins, Roberts Chapel; Rev. H. H. Warren, Shiloh Baptist; Rev. Johnson, Liberty Baptist; Rev. B. B. Robinson, Christian Congress Record; Prof. Parker, Prof. A. B. Isler, Attorney E. E. Hill, Dr. A. B. Penn, Md.; Dr. J. Milton, Hopkins, Md.; Messrs. B. F. Watson, W. A. Carter, Geo. Preston and Prof. W. C. Payne, Wm. McKinley School.

DEATHS.

Mr. Cornelius O. Wells, an old and well-known resident of this city, died at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Janie Calvert, in Washington, this morning. The Alexandria National Bank is distributing neat and tasteful calendars. They are adorned with the battle flag of the late Southern Confederacy and the pictures of Generals Robert E. Lee and Stonewall Jackson.

Did you ever stop to think that it's the quality in an article that makes it cost more? For instance, the price of those irresistibly delicious Aunt Sarah's is 15c. But remember there's a vast difference between the Aunt Sarah and the inferior grades. If you have ever known "em, you know. You know they're worth every cent we ask and a little bit more. They contain the kind of quality that will make you buy 'em time and again. In fact the time you come eventually when you won't eat any kind but the Aunt Sarah. They always taste like more. Sylvan Bloedheim, the Aunt Sarah and the Aunt Sarah Market.

PATIENTS WANT LARGER HOSPITAL.

The action of the general assembly regarding the State Tuberculosis Sanatorium is being awaited here with great interest. The patients and the officials of the sanatorium and the people of this section are hoping that funds will be available during the next few months to enlarge the institution and to increase its power to save the hundreds of Virginia citizens now dying from consumption.

Since its opening here last July, the state tuberculosis sanatorium has accomplished wonders, in the judgment of those best in a position to know the facts. A number of those that came here ill have already returned to their homes cured or so greatly improved that they can take up their usual work. The thirty-five patients now at Catwaba are doing well, and practically all of them will soon be able to return to their homes. So interested are those patients in future appropriations for the sanatorium, and so confident are they that the state's youngest hospital will save many lives, that they are planning to petition the assembly for enlargement of the present plant.

It is understood here that there are many names on the present waiting list of the sanatorium, with perhaps hundreds of sufferers waiting a chance for admission. According to state officials who recently visited there on an inspection of the sanatorium, here are at least 2,000 consumptives in the state whose sole chance for life depends upon the bounty of the state or the cities of the commonwealth.

If the legislature makes liberal appropriations for the sanatorium, it is expected that new buildings will be erected to accommodate at least 100 more patients. This will enable the state to treat about 600 consumptives a year and will greatly reduce the total number of deaths in the state from consumption. News from Richmond is being anxiously awaited by all the patients now at the sanatorium.

STERILIZATION OF CRIMINALS.

In the House of Delegates on Wednesday, as was stated in the Gazette of that day, Dr. H. U. Stephenson came forward with a bill providing for the sterilization of habitual criminals, idiots and hopelessly insane persons for the gradual extinction of criminal families. The bill has the support of a great many members of the medical profession, especially of the alienists of the state.

In a pamphlet distributed over the house Dr. O. V. Carrington argues in favor of sterilization, quoting from his experience and showing the value of the operation. Dr. Stephenson proposes creating a board consisting of eminent specialists in such matters, to judge whether certain criminals, idiots and insane persons should not be treated in this manner, and if the board thinks that sterilization is advisable to perform the operation.

It is shown that certain families in the state have cost the state tremendous amounts in the course of the last hundred years and in the opinion of the supporters of the bill these families should become extinct. The bill was presented yesterday and referred to the committee on general laws.

TRIPLE MURDER IN NEW YORK

A triple murder was revealed in an obscure flat in the heart of New York's East Side at dusk yesterday.

Two women and a man are the victims and they had been killed in a horrible manner. Gagged with silk handkerchiefs and their heads crushed with a hammer or axe, they were left bleeding and fully dressed on the floor, with a wet impering bull terrier as companion for the dead.

Robbery was apparently the motive, or else it is another case of the Black Hand. Salvatore Scalpone, a well-to-do young Italian barber, his wife and a middle-aged woman, believed to have been Mrs. Scalpone's mother, are the trio of dead persons. His failure to appear at his shop yesterday started an investigation, which resulted in the discovery of the crime.

In the kitchen, which is the first room off the fire-escape, Scalpone's body lay. It was tied to the door, the face battered beyond recognition, and a great smear of blood was near.

Near his master stood the whining bulldog, cowering and blood splattered. The animal had paced aimlessly from body to body, sniffing one and then the other, staining the floors crimson with his footprints and waiting for human aid.

In the next room were the bodies of the woman, gagged as was the man, the handkerchiefs similarly knotted and the heads battered as if the same implement had been used on all three. But nothing with which such wounds could have been inflicted was found in the flat.

Inspection by the officers revealed dire confusion. Drawers were dumped out, cupboards ransacked, mattresses ripped open and every conceivable hiding place for money or valuables was pried open.

The police are convinced that more than one person took part in the murder, for with the bulldog on guard and three persons to cope with, one man would have been powerless. Examination showed that Scalpone's body had been dragged from the dining room to the kitchen, where it was tied.

SILVER CUP FOR MRS. SWANSON.

Mrs. Claude A. Swanson had an "at home" Tuesday evening, at which were present many members of the fashionable set of Richmond. About 7 o'clock a party of some fourteen, headed by Mrs. William H. White, entered the parlors and Mrs. White presented to Mrs. Swanson a handsome solid silver loving cup, on behalf of herself and the members of the party—not one of the contributors is in any way connected with the official administration of Gov. Swanson. Mrs. White made a pretty little speech in presenting the cup, regretting that Mrs. Swanson was soon to leave the city and expressing the wish that she might be a frequent—and certainly a welcome—visitor to Richmond. Mrs. Swanson, always graceful and gracious, was as delighted as she was surprised, and in accepting the gift told the callers of her appreciation of their expression of good will saying she would ever prize the gift as one of her most choice possessions.—[Richmond News Leader.]
